SolidWorks.Activator.Monday, March 25, 2017 Prophecy I am writing this on the plane back to my home town, the day after our wedding. I have a lot of things to do, so this will be short. It is 4:07 AM here right now, and the airplane was supposed to leave at 4, but they delayed it because of weather. I was up late last night, and I was wearing my wedding dress. We talked about the future. It was a very beautiful time, that will never happen again. I want to write the story of this time in my life. I want to write it not only to preserve my memories, but so that others can go through what I'm going through. We spoke openly about God and religion and how we felt about our marriage. We had a lot of things to work out in the beginning of our marriage, so much so that I told him I needed to have the same wedding as Bathsheba did. Meaning that I didn't want to be married to him. Shortly after he promised that he would give me my own wedding with the same theme as what happened to Bathsheba, but I think that he meant it for the next 25 years, not just the time from the time we were 20 and on. We talked about our family. We talked about how he stopped paying his bills after I got pregnant with my first daughter, because I was unemployed. My job was to go to school, and the government pays my tuition. When I started school, I was still pregnant, and he didn't want to help pay for it. When I got back
