Dewdrop Dynasty is a short, but challenging adventure game. You will be playing as the titular Dewdrops who's world has become magically shrunken. These dewdrops must travel through their small world, exploring rooms and defeating hostile inhabitants. Along the way, you'll meet adorable characters, use new abilities, solve puzzles, and engage in gun-based combat. It's a fairly challenging, yet charming game for any fan of classic NES style games.

----- This game features a "Sticker Map" that will be unlocked over the course of the game. This sticker map allows you to see not only the locations of rooms, but also doors and exits. Keep this map with you to play other games! ----- In order to make this game, I took the two Metroid games that I grew

You'll also need to keep an eye out for the Box as well, because it moves around! Once you start digging at the Box, it will move to another position, potentially giving you a new weapon or a powerful tool. That being said, I am using the new game block which allows you to drag the boxes around the world. This has a couple of implications when it comes to farming (more on that later).
Note : At the time of writing, not all blocks were implemented and may be subject to change.
